In the case of electronic data transmission, this declaration is valid without signature. The sending of the data is considered as confirmation and assurance that the form has been filled in correctly and completely. It is also regarded as release for editing and publication.

You will find our regulations for handling personal data in our privacy policy under <https://www.fibl.org/fileadmin/kundendatenschutz-fibl-projekte-gmbh.pdf>.

If you purchase services from us and provide your e-mail address in the process, we reserve the right to use this for sending newsletters with direct advertising for our own similar services. This serves to protect our legitimate interests in addressing our customers with advertising, which outweighs our interests in the context of a balancing of interests (Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f) GDPR).

You can object to this use of your data at any time by sending a message to datenschutz.de@fibl.org or via the unsubscribe option in the advertising e-mail, without incurring any costs other than the transmission costs according to the basic rates. Insofar as the newsletter is sent on the basis of the sale of services, we invoke Section 7 (3) of the German Unfair Competition Act (UWG).
